

Student Prep Sheet

Your school or college will be hosting a Speakers for Schools talk soon with one of our speakers.

This is your chance to get real world insights from someone who is successful in their field and put questions to them directly.

Who is the speaker?

To get the most out of your event it is helpful to have a little background on who they are and their achievements. Look up your speaker on the internet (Google and LinkedIn are helpful) and from other resources such as newspapers.

Based on what you find, fill in below:

Name:

Where do they work?

What do they do?

What is interesting about their past work and experience?

Questions for the talk:

Having researched the speaker, the thing I most want to know is...

Three further questions I might like to ask so I learn more about their life journey, education, opinion on a topic etc.:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Don't worry if you think of a new question during the talk, this is just to help get you thinking. Enjoy the event!

Above is the Skills Builder Universal Framework- what skills do you want to ask the speaker about?
Think about some of the questions you will ask below.

Thank you and we hope you enjoy the talk!
